About Zegona

Zegona was established with the objective of acquiring businesses in the European Telecommunications, Media and Technology (“TMT”) sector with a ‘Buy-Fix-Sell’ strategy to deliver attractive shareholder returns. Zegona is listed on the London Stock Exchange’s Main Market and is led by former Virgin Media executives Eamonn O’Hare and Robert Samuelson.

Zegona’s first acquisition was the €640 million purchase of Telecable, the leading quad play cable telecommunications operator in the Asturias region of Spain, which completed in August 2015.
